

The Centre for International Governance and Justice and RegNet present a Cinema and Peacebuilding Seminar:

LIBERIA: AN UNCIVIL WAR

27 October 2006, 1.00 - 3.00 pm
Coombs Extension Lecture Theatre (Building 8, room 1.04)
Please feel free to bring your lunch along

“While Jonathan Stack filmed in Monrovia capturing the last months of President Charles Taylor's regime, James Brabazon traveled with the LURD rebel army as they marched on the capital city. The filmmakers gained extraordinary access to both sides in the conflict and the film gives a palpable sense of life in a war zone.”

- www.gabrielfilms.com

Directed by Jonathan Stack and James Brabazon. Filmed in 2003.
Released in 2004. Length: 102 Minutes. Language: English

Warning: this film contains some disturbing scenes

Post-screening discussion:

Dr. Jeremy Farrall (CIGJ/RegNet) will lead a brief post-film discussion on the situation in Liberia. From 2004-2006 Jeremy worked as a policy adviser for the UN Mission in Liberia.

The CIGJ Cinema and Peacebuilding Seminar Series aims to promote deeper understanding of conflict and post-conflict situations.