The New South Wales Bar Association

The second in a two part series that will allow members of the Bar to contribute and participate in the debate regarding a Charter of rights.

Hilary Charlesworth, Chair of the ACT Government's inquiry into an ACT bill of rights and Noel Hutley SC will debate the pros and cons of a Charter of rights in NSW. The presentation will provide members with arguments 'for' and 'against' the issue of a charter of rights in NSW.

At the conclusion of the presentation members of the Bar will be invited to join in the debate and offer further comments and insight on this issue.

REGISTRATION IS NOT REQUIRED
